Ski Nationals 2007

The National Team arrives on Canadian grounds, stronger than ever!

Quebec, March 19th 2007- The national cross-country skiing team is back home. Canadian athletes will try to surpass the results gained during the World Cup, located in Italy, last week.

Alex Harvey and Frédéric Touchette, the most promising skiers from Quebec for the Vancouver Olympic Games, will be arriving in Quebec City tonight. They will be participating in the short distance event, taking place tomorrow morning at the Mont Sainte-Anne.

During the week, some cross-country skiers' performances cannot be missed. The Ski Nationals will welcome Chandra Crawford, the Torino Olympic gold medalist, Jacqueline Mourao, the only Brazilian participant as well as Kazuma Takahashi, the only Japanese skier taking part in the competitions.

Tuesday March 20th, the events will begin at 10 o'clock, on the track located behind the "Chalet des fondeurs" at the Mont Sainte-Anne resort.
