Ski Nationals 2007

Two out of two for Gaïazova and Harvey

Quebec, March 22 2007 –Dasha Gaïazova from Montreal, placed first for two consecutive days of competition, in the Open category. This result keeps her in first place in the overall classification, next to the skier Chris Jeffries. Alex Harvey kept his first place in the Junior A category, which brings him to fourth place in the overall classification.

In the Junior A category, Brittany Webster from Ontario ranked first in the women's competition. David Greer, from the Yukon, received the gold medal in the Junior B category. Chris Jeffries, from Chelsea, is now first in the overall classification, placing first in the Open category.

Two young Quebecker skiers' performances should be pointed out in today's competitions. Julien Nury placed third in the Junior B category for the medium distance event. Sophie Harvey ranked fifth in the women's competition. Furthermore, Frédéric Touchette finished second in the Junior A category.

March 22nd will be an official training day for the athletes. Competitions will carry on Friday with the individual Sprints races, classic style, on a 1.2 km distance. These races will start at 10 o'clock, at the Mont Sainte-Anne resort.
