Ski Nationals 2007

Chandra Crawford on the Mont Sainte-Anne tracks

Quebec, March 23rd 2007 - Chandra Crawford stood out during the individual Sprint races with her second place, just behind Perianne Jones, from Ontario. The Torino Olympic gold medalist will hold a press conference Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. An autograph session will follow the meeting.

The day started with the 800 m. individual Sprint races in the Juvenile category and the 1200 m. races in the Junior A and B categories. In the Junior A, Sophie Caldwell, from Stratton Mountain, placed first in the women's competition. Alex Harvey, from Quebec, won first place in the men's competition, for a third consecutive time. Allyson Cummings, from British Columbia and Julien Nury, from Quebec, both won the gold medal in the Junior B.

In the Open category, Perianne Jones, from Ontario, and Phil Widmer, from Banff, placed first in the women's and the men's competitions.

In the women's Juvenile category, Heidi Widmer, from Alberta, finished first. Louis-Étienne Garceau, from St-Charles-Borromée, was the winner in the men's category.

Tomorrow, Saturday March 24th, will be dedicated to an official training, preparing for the last day of competition, which will take place on Sunday. The long distance event, freestyle, will put an end to the 2007 Ski Nationals.
