Ski Nationals 2007

Chandra Crawford meets her fans

Quebec, March 24th 2007- Chandra Crawford met her biggest fans this morning on the cross-country skiing site of the Mont Sainte-Anne. This meeting, one the medalist was waiting for, for a long time, was followed by an autograph session and the presentation of her Olympic medal.

After the intense competitions during yesterday's individual Sprint races, the athletes were allowed to have some rest today. It was an official training day.

The competitions are coming to an end. Tomorrow, Sunday the 25th, is the last day of the 2007 Ski Nationals. The championship will end with the long distance event, with 7.5 km for the Juvenile category, 15 km for Junior B, 30 km for Junior A and 50 km for the Open category. The mass starts will begin at 9 o'clock with the first categories.
