Ski Nationals 2007

Alex Harvey finishes on a good note, with a fourth gold medal

Quebec, March 25th 2007 – The Ski Nationals 2007 ended today at the Mont Sainte-Anne. Alex Harvey amazed us once again by winning a fourth gold medal, at the 30 km long distance event. Frédéric Touchette followed closely behind, as he placed second in the Junior A category.

In the Open category, Dasha Gaïazova, from Montreal, and Dace Nighbor, from Ontario, respectively won the first place in the women's and in the men's competitions.

In Junior A, Brittany Webster, from Ontario, won the gold medal in the women's competition, as Alex Harvey did in the men's one. In Junior B, Bryn Knight and David Greer, from the Yukon both placed first.

For the younger skiers, in the Juvenile category, Janelle Greer from the Yukon won the gold medal in the women's competition, as Raphaël Couturier, from Québec did in the men's race.

Next week already, the athletes from Quebec will be on track again for the Coupe Atomic finale, which takes place in La Tuque.
